Building Guidelines

- Per State of Illinois order, face coverings are mandatory in public/common areas.
- Hand sanitizer stations are strategically placed throughout common areas, building entrances, lobbies, and dock.
- Elevator bank signs in the lobby will clearly display new guidelines.
 - All riders are required to wear a face covering per Illinois State Order.
 - All riders, and those waiting for elevator, please practice social distancing.
- "Smart Keys" plated in copper, a natural anti-microbial, will be available to press buttons.
- Common corridor restroom keypads disengaged, reducing touch point.
- Special cleaning can be arranged by contacting the Office of the Building.

PRACTICE SOCIAL DISTANCE

PLEASE MAINTAIN 6 FEET BETWEEN YOU AND OTHERS WHENEVER POSSIBLE

THE HEALTH AND SAFETY OF OUR TENANTS, EMPLOYEES AND COMMUNITY REMAIN OUR TOP PRIORITY.

Little Toasted Donation

We are proud to announce that the team from Little Toasted will be using their kitchen to support Frontline Foods and World Central Kitchen's initiative of providing meals to first responders and community organizations.

An estimated 1,000 meals will be donated every week!

300SRP APIARY UPDATE

This May we awakened our 3 rooftop beehives! They are now "buzzily" working on our city's plant population. Our Building beekeeper Bill Whitney visits regularly to check on the hives and feeds the brood special bee snacks.

Each hive produce 40-60lbs of honey per year.

300SRP 3RD ANNUAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

300 South Riverside proudly participates in One Summer Chicago internship program. Through One Summer Chicago, building management helps to provide vital opportunities — work experience, training and mentoring, for Chicago youth via this summer program. Participants learn crucial job readiness skills and are offered the opportunity to engage with peers from outside of their neighborhoods and existing peer groups. 300 South Riverside is working with One Summer Chicago to prepare for the Summer Internship Program in July and August, 2020.
